

Dangerous Practices

1. No student shall engage in any activity which shall endanger the health, safety, well-being, or property of themselves or another member of the University community or the institution. Such conduct will result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation plus other disciplinary measures, up to and including suspension.
2. The sale, possession, production, purchase or use of any explosives, fireworks, incendiary devices, firearms, ammunition, BB/pellet guns, paintball guns, weapons or reasonable facsimile thereof on University property are prohibited as are conspiracies or attempted activities of this nature and will result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation to expulsion.
3. Throwing objects, including but not limited to bottles, cans, food or trash, etc. constitutes a dangerous practice and will likely result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation plus other disciplinary measures, up to and including suspension.
4. Failure to abide by Residence Life regulations regarding dangerous practices including but not limited to those listed in the Residence Life section of this handbook may result in disciplinary probation plus other disciplinary measures, up to and including suspension.