

Compliance with Housing Contract

Violations of the Housing Contract or published rules and regulations for residence halls are subject to disciplinary action. Students for whom those contracts are applicable are responsible for understanding their rights and obligations under those contracts and regulations (See 'Residence Life Policies' in this publication).

Compliance with Health and Safety Guidelines and Protocols

As it is every member's responsibility to contribute to the creation of a healthy and safe community, students are required under this Code to comply with University health and safety directives, guideline, rules, regulations and protocols in times of emergency and/or other public health crisis.
