

Compliance with University Policy

Students enrolled at Villanova University must comply with the regulations promulgated in the Villanova University Student Handbook, the Villanova Policy Library, and other official documents, policies or regulations published by the University as a condition for successful completion of the program of studies at the University.